(4) Reading Comprehension

A. Read the text and choose the correct answers.

Message in a bottle

Forty years ago, eight-year-old Sandra Morris was on a cruise ship travelling home to the USA from a holiday in Europe. During her journey, she threw an empty bottle containing a note over the side of the ship. Three months later, eight-year-old Rosalind Hearse was walking on a beach with her headmaster father when she spotted Sandra’s bottle in the sand. The two girls started writing to each other straight away, and have been in touch ever since. Yesterday the pair, both now 48, visited the spot at Morfa beach near Margam, South Wales, where Rosalind found the message. Rosalind says, ‘Our friendship grew through our letters as we shared amazingly parallel lives. We each have two children, a boy and girl, and our eldest were born just ten days apart.’ The pair’s children have also become firm friends after sharing a trip to Disneyland together.

Read the text again and answer the questions with a complete sentence.

B. Reading

The energy crisis

Fossil fuels like oil, natural gas and coal come from plants and animals that died millions of years ago. In the past they were very cheap and easy to extract, but now they are running out. An alternative to fossil fuels is nuclear energy, which comes from nuclear reactions in radioactive materials like uranium. A small amount of uranium produces a lot of energy, but nuclear waste remains dangerous for thousands of years. Because of the problems with fossil fuels and nuclear energy, scientists are doing research into renewable energy sources, such as solar energy from the sun, hydroelectric energy from moving water and wind energy using wind turbines. Another alternative is biomass, which is biological material like plant or animal waste. At the moment all the alternative energy sources have disadvantages as well as advantages, so the energy crisis has not been solved yet.

Read the text again and answer the questions with a complete sentence.

1. What are fossil fuels made from?
2. What is the problem with fossil fuels today?
.....
3. What is the advantage of using uranium to produce energy?
.....
4. What machinery is necessary to convert wind energy into electricity?

(3) Novel

The man in the Iron Mask

Chapters 6&7:

1- Why did Aramis not want D'Artagnan to see Philippe?

Because D'Artagnan knew the King better than anyone and he might suspect something if he talked to Philippe.

2- What was Fouquet's reaction when Aramis told him that he had swapped Louis with Philippe?

When Aramis told him about his plan Fouquet was shocked and couldn't believe that all this happened under his roof. Aramis tried to tell him that by doing this France would be better and even Fouquet was saved. But Fouquet accused Aramis of committing treason and told him that he was going to the Bastille to rescue the King.

3- Why did D'Artagnan go to see Fouquet?

He went to tell him that the King had asked D'Artagnan to arrest him for stealing money from the state. And that Colbert gave the King receipts which proved that. But Fouquet defended himself by saying that he didn't steal the money and he had just borrowed it. Fouquet told D'Artagnan that he could ask Aramis and he would back him up and that Aramis promised to lend him the money.

4- "It was entirely the King's decision." Comment

Aramis said these words to D'Artagnan after D'Artagnan had gone to the King's room to ask him about this final decision concerning Fouquet. Aramis refused to let him inside the room and handed him a piece of paper, which was read on it to set Fouquet Free. D'Artagnan believed that Aramis was the one who persuaded the King to Forgive Fouquet. But Aramis said that it was the Kings own decision.

5- “How could the Queen allow something like that?” Comment.

Fouquet said these words to Aramis when Aramis revealed the secret that King Louis had an identical twin who was imprisoned in the Bastille. Fouquet couldn't believe that the Queen did this to her son; Aramis told him that she felt it was better to send one of her sons to jail rather than risking that someone discover that secret.

Chapters 8.9 & 10:

1- Why did Fouquet choose to send Aramis and Porthos to Belle Isle?

Fouquet told Aramis to leave Vaux with Porthos and seek refuge at his house on Belle Isle, just off the coast of France, because the King's soldiers have no authority to arrest anyone there.

2- What was Louis' order concerning his brother?

He ordered D'Artagnan to take Philippe to a prison on the island of Saint Marguerite and to make him wear an iron mask to hide his face and if he dared to remove the mask, he would be killed.

3- “Monsieur, you are my Prisoner.” Comment.

D'Artagnan said these words to Philippe, after Louis had arrived at Vaux with Fouquet. When Louis saw his identical brother sitting on the throne and acting as if he was the King, he asked his mother to tell everyone that he was Louis King of France, but she cried and didn't answer. Louis turned to D'Artagnan and asked him to look at both faces of him and Philippe and he could tell everyone who was the impostor as one of them spent many years in the jail and was much paler than the other. Without hesitation, D'Artagnan put his hand on Philippe's shoulder and told him these words.

4- Athos warned and helped Aramis and Porthos. Illustrate.

Aramis and Porthos decided to pay Athos a visit before going to Belle Isle. Athos was delighted to see his friends and invited them for supper; Aramis told Athos everything that happened with them. Athos told Aramis that his idea was great, but also a great mistake. Aramis told him also that they were going to Fouquet's house on Belle Isle because the King's soldiers weren't permitted to set foot on it and then they would travel to Spain. But Athos warned them that Louis is a cunning man and although he didn't have the authority to arrest anyone on that island, the law never stopped him. He helped them by giving them two horses and some provisions. He told them that he would arrange with one of his friends who has a fish boat to take them from the harbour to Belle Isle.

5- D'Artagnan had underestimated the King. Explain.

King Louis ordered D'Artagnan to take troop of soldiers and go to Belle Isle to arrest Aramis and Porthos. When he arrived there they refused to surrender, D'Artagnan told them that they would never surrender and asked them about their plan. Aramis told him that some locals would help them travel to Spain but Porthos said that because of the arrival of D'Artagnan and the soldiers they have to set a new plan. D'Artagnan said that he had a great idea to give them time to get away. He went out to his soldiers and took them back to their ship; he told them that the negotiation with Aramis and Porthos had been failed so he decided to resign his position as a Captain of the Musketeers. D'Artagnan knew that they couldn't complete the mission without a captain and he thought that by doing that he gave his friends time to get away. But D'Artagnan had underestimated the King because once he told them that he resigned, one of the officers showed him an order from the King which said that if D'Artagnan resigned his position, the officers had to arrest him and return him to France. One of the officers escorted D'Artagnan on a small ship while the others went to arrest Aramis and Porthos.

6- "I wish I'd never involved you in all of this." Comment.

Aramis said that when Porthos had been shot while they were running from the soldiers towards the cave to take the boat that would take them to safety. One of the locals helped Aramis to carry Porthos towards the cave, he was seriously injured in his back. Aramis cried as he couldn't do anything to his best friend and told him that he wished he had never let him participate in that plan.

7- D'Artagnan proved that he believe in "All for one and one for all". Illustrate.

Because when he knew that Aramis had surrendered and was taken to the Bastille, he disguised as a priest and went to the Bastille. He met Aramis, heard his confession and gave him a bible. D'Artagnan had already put a key to Aramis' cell inside it. When Aramis escaped from the Bastille, he found that D'Artagnan had left a horse tied to a tree in the forest waiting for him. D'Artagnan left a note attached to the saddle of the horse, he wrote on that note that it was the right thing to do and wished him good luck.

8- Where did Aramis decide to go after going out from the Bastille?

He decided to go to the island of Sainte Marguerite to set Philippe free.

Poetry

Bed In Summer

Questions with model answers:

1. Who is the poet?

Robert Louis Stevenson

2. What is the rhyme scheme of "Bed in Summer" ?

aa bbcc ddee bb

3. What is the main idea of the poem?

The poet writes about the weather in England; he says that in winter, it's dark until about 8 o'clock in the morning, so he has to get up when it's still dark & get dressed by yellow-candle light. In summer, it's completely different, it's light until about 9 o'clock at night, so the poet goes to bed when it's still light.

4. Paraphrase the first stanza.

The same answer of question number 3

5. I have to go to bed and see

Complete the stanza and paraphrase it

I have to go to bed and see

The birds still hopping on the tree,

Or hear the grown-up people's feet

Still going past me in the street.

Paraphrase:

When the poet goes to bed in summer, it's still light so birds are still hopping & people are still walking in the street.

6. Write the lines in which the poet feels annoyed because he has to go to bed early while he wants to enjoy the weather and play.

*And does it not seem hard to you,
When all the sky is clear and blue,
And I should like so much to play,
To have to go to bed by day.*

7. What is the title of the poem?

Bed in summer

8. Write the first stanza & pick out its figures of speech.

*In winter I get up at night
And dress by yellow candle-light.
In summer, quite the other way,
I have to go to bed by day.*

a. contrast: night and day

b. alliteration: bed/ by the poet repeated the first sound "B"

9. Does the writer really get up at night?

No, he doesn't. He gets up at day, but it's still dark as if it were night.
